

CHATT HILLS FALL FESTIVAL

Third Annual Fall Festival Welcomes the Season

By: Laurie Searle

Friends & Neighbors gathered to celebrate the season in the Town Green Park behind city hall with the third annual Chatt Hills Fall Festival on October 14.

This year's event, hosted by the city of Chattahoochee Hills and its Community Outreach team, included a free BBQ dinner, food and craft vendors, fun and games for the kids and adults, live music and entertainment, and municipal and county information.

Councilmember Ruby Foster acknowledged city council members Laurie Searle and Camille Lowe for supporting the event, city manager Robbie Rokovitz and his many staff members for their support before and during the event, Fulton County officials for their support and information booths, and the entertainers and vendors.

We thank Chip Denton capturing the exciting of the day in his wonderful photos. For more pictures see: www.chatthillscommunityoutreach.comn

Art Farm at Serenbe hosted the Cupcake Concert.

Bear Creek Nature Center brought critters.

Fulton County offered information booths.

Southern Aires performed Big Band Music and Jazz

Gloria Edwards, and her 16 year-old grandson, Josiah Smith,, since snazzy tunes.